

Cornerstone for Business Spring 2024 Contest Winners “The Future of Work”

Our first-place winner is Camille Morin, a first-year student studying Construction Engineering and Management.

Camille’s podcast titled “AI – History to Headlines, produced in Professor Daniel Schiff’s SCLA 102, discusses the relationship between humans and technology, and how advancements in AI continue to further blur the line between humanity and technology.

Zeynap Gulcek, our second-place winner, is a First-Year Engineering student seeking to transition to Aerospace Engineering. Her poem, “When Hands Become Binary and Brains Sing Code,” written in Professor James Mollison’s SCLA 102, is set at a factory and depicts a future where workers are replaced with machines.

----- Honorary Mentions -----

Abigail Snyder
First-Year Engineering
Pursuing Biomedical Engineering

Short Story
SCLA 102
Prof. Daniel Schiff

Anthony Sharonov
First-Year Engineering
Pursuing Computer Engineering

Artwork
SCLA 101
Prof. Rhodes Pinto

Ndanatsa Maduwura
First-Year
Marketing and Finance

Poem
SCLA 101
Prof. Rhodes Pinto

Our second Cornerstone for Business contest received over 50 submissions from students in SCLA 101 and 102. We are grateful to our faculty judges for offering their time and to our wonderful students for their creativity.