To: Prof. Ian Lindsay, Undergraduate Director, Department of Anthropology

From: ________________________________ (Name of student applicant)

Date:

University status: _____ Freshman _____ Sophomore _____ Junior _____ Senior

Field school application status:

_____ I have applied to a field school, and my application is under review.

_____ I have been accepted to a field school.

1. Name of field school: ______________________________________________________

2. Institution/university running the field school: _________________________________

3. Dates and location of field school: __________________________________________

4. If the field school awards university credit, do you intend to transfer credits toward your major at Purdue (e.g., up to 6 units in ANTH 418, 428, or 438)?

   _____ No

   _____ Yes (if yes, please see Dr. Sue Graham for credit transfer policies)

5. Do you have other Purdue or non-Purdue support (e.g., grants), or do you plan to apply?

   _____ No

   _____ Yes (if yes, please list the source and amount below)

Note: Award recipients may not accept concurrent funding that duplicates the purposes and costs supported by the travel grant made possible with departmental funds. Awardees must inform the department immediately upon receipt of additional grants. Under these circumstances, we reserve the right to request a comparative budget and renegotiate award levels. In rare cases of multiple awards, we may ask that the awardee decline one award.
6. Itemized budget request (up to $750; e.g., equipment, airfare, mileage)

7. Statement of significance of the field school to your career objectives:

8. Faculty mentor’s signature: ______________________________
