

HIST 300: Eve of Destruction: Global Crises and World Organization in the 20th Century

Dr. William Gray

Fall 2020 | Monday, Wednesday, Friday | 10:30am-12:20pm | UNIV 217

Using a variety of case studies, this course considers turning points – often violent and disastrous ones – in an emerging global conversation about urgent world problems and their possible solutions. Topics include the successes (and failures) of the League of Nations and the United Nations; the development of international law; and the increasing significance of NGOs in recent decades.
