

History 34705

American Religious History

Fall 2019 - MWF 1:30-2:20
Dr. Deborah Fleetham

Religion is at the center of the history of the United States. It has influenced both the big and the small in American life. This course examines the history of religion in the United States from the colonial period to the present. It traces the evolution of religious life in America, and religion's influence on American politics, society, and culture.