

Asian American Studies Colloquium Series presents

Dr. Linda Trinh Võ
University of California, Irvine

“(Re)Constructing Refugee Narratives and Archives”

Thursday, October 5, 2017
11am-12:15pm
Heavilon Hall, Room G4
(Light lunch will be served)

Dr. Võ (Ph.D. Sociology, UC San Diego) is a Professor in the Department of Asian American Studies and Director of the Vietnamese American Oral History Project at the University of California, Irvine. She authored Mobilizing an Asian American Community, co-authored Vietnamese in Orange County, and co-edited Contemporary Asian American Communities: Intersection and Divergences; Asian American Women: The “Frontiers” Reader; Labor Versus Empire: Race, Gender, and Migration; and Keywords for Asian American Studies. She was President of the national Association for Asian American Studies and is Co-Chair of the Community Advisory Council for Asian Americans Advancing Justice–Orange County.

A special thank you to our co-sponsors:
American Studies, Asian American and Asian Resource and Cultural Center, and College of Education

School of Interdisciplinary Studies

PURDUE
LIBERAL ARTS

THINK BROADLY.
LEAD BOLDLY.