Public Square Forum, Fall 2010
Sponsored by the Center for the Study of Violence,
the College of Liberal Arts

Lecture, Film, and Discussion:

Patrick Gerard Henry
“Modes of Resistance to Violence:
The Rescue of Jews in France
During the Holocaust”

October 21, 3:00 p.m.

Black Cultural Center, 1100 Third St., W. L.

Refreshments served

- Who were the rescuers of Jews during the Holocaust?
- Why do we know so little about them?
- What motivated them?
- What can we learn from studying them?

Professor Henry’s talk will be preceded by a showing of the short film by Pierre Sauvage, Weapons of the Spirit.

http://www.cla.purdue.edu/academic/idis/violence-center/

Professor Henry’s book, We Only Know Men is published by Catholic University of America Press.