

The Carolyn C. Perrucci
Undergraduate Achievement Award

Professor Carolyn C. Perrucci

Women's Gender and Sexuality Studies Affiliated Faculty member

Purdue Women's Studies Chair 1980-81; Co-Chair 1986-1988

The award is named after Carolyn Perrucci, Professor of Sociology and Women's, Gender and Sexuality Studies affiliated faculty who helped found and has been involved with the program since its inception.

The Women's, Gender, & Sexuality Studies program offers an award to a WGSS major with a high grade point average who also has been involved in progressive campus co-curricular activities, especially in feminist programming, and activism, thus realizing feminism's foundational concepts of feminist theory and practice.

PRIZE: $250

Deadline is Saturday, March 1, 2025 by 4:00 PM

To apply: Submit an essay of one to two pages describing how feminist concepts have informed or inspired your political or community activism, and the ways in which your activism reflects what you have learned in women's, gender, and sexuality studies. Include a transcript and a brief cover letter. Submit materials to Ashley Purpura, wgss@purdue.edu. Deadline is Saturday, March 1, 2025 by 4:00 PM. The prize will be awarded at an awards reception in April (TBD).
