The members of the Purdue Classics Association hold the study of Classics and related fields to be not only important to Purdue University, but to the very future of academia. We dedicate our organization to the preservation and cultivation of Classical Studies, holding in the highest esteem the pursuit of knowledge that will advance the field of Classical Studies. We are also a chapter of the National Senior Classical League and the Indiana Senior Classical League.