GRANT AWARDEES

Fenggang Yang [PI] and Chris White [Co-PI] were awarded a one-year planning grant from the John Templeton Foundation. Their project, titled “Measuring Religious Change in the Global East,” will study East Asian societies and diasporas around the world that share similar backgrounds in Confucianism.

Jill Suitor [PI] and Megan Gilligan [Co-PI] were awarded a grant by the National Institute on Aging to fund the first year of T3 data collection for the Within-Family Differences Study. This phase of the WFDS focuses on the impact of deaths of members of the oldest generation on the health and well-being of their adult children and adult grandchildren.

It was a Beach Bash! Many faculty, staff, graduate students and their guests enjoyed a picnic at Columbian Park on Friday, August 23, 2019 with a fajita bar catered by Moe’s.

There were lawn games, prizes, and plenty of food for all.

New faculty, staff, and graduate students were recognized. Jim and Anna Davidson were also in attendance.

Many thanks to staff for planning and preparing the event—especially new Lead Administrative Assistant, Tammy Crider.
