Traditional and nontraditional approaches and their art historical meanings will be examined and applied. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 20100 - Art for Elementary School Teachers
Credit Hours: 3.00. Art theory and experiences, curriculum theory, and materials preparatory for instruction of elementary school children. No undergraduate students may be enrolled in this course until they have been admitted to teacher education and a copy of this acceptance is on file. Typically offered Summer Fall Spring.

AD 20200 - Introduction to Art Education
Credit Hours: 2.00. Lectures, readings, and discussions covering the history, theory, and professional literature of art education. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 20300 - Art Activities for Elementary Teachers
Credit Hours: 2.00. An undergraduate course designed to assist the student in gaining basic skills in art media and method as a beginning classroom teacher. This exposure to the basic art program should provide a stimulating, enrichment art program for the classroom. Typically offered Fall Spring Summer.
AD 20400 - Graphic Arts II: Digital
Credit Hours: 3.00. This course introduces the computer as a powerful tool for manipulating and creating images. Students are encouraged to use their own photography and develop their own styles. Adobe Photoshop software package is the primary image processing program used to digitally enhance, alter and retouch images. Electronic layout and typographical issues are discussed, and a page layout program is introduced to combine text with image. Typically offered Summer Fall Spring.

AD 20500 - Design III
Credit Hours: 3.00. Problems in two- and three-dimensional design, utilizing a variety of tools, materials, and processes. Study is made of the interaction between designer and society, involving concepts in art, psychology, technology, anthropology, and history. Typically offered Fall.

AD 20600 - Studio in Visual Communications Design
Credit Hours: 3.00. Investigation of visual communications design theory, history, skills, and methodology, as well as preparation of art and mechanicals for graphic arts reproduction. Typically offered Spring.

AD 21300 - Life Drawing I
Credit Hours: 3.00. Introduction to drawing the human figure with emphasis upon structure and gesture. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 21500 - Materials and Processes
Credit Hours: 3.00. An introductory course in the selection of materials and processes as relevant to design, with laboratory experiences in the safe and proper use of tools and equipment. Required of students wishing extensive access to A&D tools and equipment. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 21700 - Introduction to Classical Archaeology
Credit Hours: 3.00. Introduction to the techniques and history of archaeology in the Old World, with interest focused on the ancient Mediterranean basin, and extended chronologically and geographically to Medieval Europe. Both the modern science of excavation in this part of the world and the history of its practice there receive attention. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 22000 - Computers in Art
Credit Hours: 3.00. Introduction to computer graphics concepts and the electronic image as a fine art form. Emphasis is placed on personal expression, using the computer as a two-dimensional art tool. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 22400 - Interior Design Textiles Laboratory
Credit Hours: 1.00. Laboratory component to AD 32400. Field trips will be required. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 22600 - History of Art to 1400
Credit Hours: 3.00. Review of painting, sculpture, and architecture from their beginnings to the end of the Middle Ages. Typically offered Fall.

AD 22700 - History Of Art Since 1400
Credit Hours: 3.00. Review of painting, sculpture, and architecture from 1400 to present. Typically offered Spring.
AD 22800 - Visual Communications Design Computing I
Credit Hours: 3.00. An introductory course in visual design computing programs used in the study and production of Visual Communications Design. Typically offered Summer Fall Spring.

AD 22900 - Visual Communications Design Computing II
Credit Hours: 3.00. An intermediate course in visual design computing programs used in the study and production of Visual Communications Design. Typically offered Summer Fall Spring.

AD 23000 - Interior Design I
Credit Hours: 3.00. Study of behavior patterns, perceptions, needs, and usage of three-dimensional space through conceptual solutions to human environments. Interior design theory and application of design process through analysis, research, and synthesis will be explored. Typically offered Fall.

AD 23300 - Electronic Media Studio
Credit Hours: 3.00. Introductory class to artistic practices on the computer. Students will work with digital still images, sounds, stop-frame animation and HTML-based websites and learn how to connect simple sensors to the computer to control digital images and sounds interactively. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 234 – Art and Design Internship Preparation
Credit Hours: 1.00. Introduction and preparation for Art & Design Internship experience. Students will develop an resume, cover letter and other resources in their search for a suitable internship placement. Typically offered Fall, Spring, Summer.

AD 23500 - Materials and Processes II
Credit Hours: 3.00. Problems in three-dimensional design, incorporating materials, production processes, and applications of current technology, emphasizing aspects of society and technology. An introduction to complete industrial design problems, including problem definition, concepts, resource information, design development, final proposals, and presentation techniques. Typically offered Spring

AD 23600 – Lighting Fundamentals for Photography
Credit Hours: 3.00. This course introduces fundamental principles of lighting and techniques for achieving high quality results using available lights, hot lights, electronic flash and strobe lighting techniques. Permission of department required. Typically offered Spring.

AD 24000 - Interior Drafting and Drawing
Credit Hours: 3.00. Basic drafting and drawing techniques used in residential and small commercial buildings. Emphasis on interior projects, on multi-view drawing, isometrics, perspective, and architectural construction drawings, and rendering techniques. Typically offered Fall.

AD 24200 - Ceramics I
Credit Hours: 3.00. An introduction to ceramic materials and processes used in creating wheelthrown and hand-formed pottery and sculpture. Emphasis on contemporary interpretations of traditional forms. Freshman and Sophomore students have priority. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 24600 - Design Drawing II
Credit Hours: 3.00. Continuation of the work done in A&D 245. Emphasis on development of skills and presentation quality design drawing. Typically offered Fall.

AD 25000 - Interior Design II
Credit Hours: 3.00. Introduction to space planning methodology applied to small-scale residential and nonresidential environments. Human factors and user requirements, physical and psychological, will be emphasized. Interior materials, components, and special environmental concerns will be explored. Typically offered Spring.

AD 25100 - History of Photography I
Credit Hours: 3.00. An introduction of the history of photography from the medium's inception until 1950. Emphasis is placed on understanding photographs from a variety of aesthetic, social, and cultural perspectives, including those of race, class, and gender. Typically offered Summer Fall Spring.

AD 25600 - Presentation Techniques
Credit Hours: 3.00. Studio preparing students for project presentations. Classes will cover graphic techniques, including page layout, typography, portfolio formats, perspective drawings, photography, and verbal communication. Typically offered Spring.

AD 26000 - Computer-Aided Design for Interiors
Credit Hours: 3.00. Computer-aided design and drafting on the microcomputer for interior design. Students learn to draw architectural spaces, interior furnishings, and mechanical objects and to manipulate them in two- and three-dimensional space. Typically offered Spring.

AD 26200 - Jewelry and Metalwork I
Credit Hours: 3.00. An introduction to the design and execution of hand-wrought jewelry and metalwork. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 26500 - Relief Printmaking
Credit Hours: 3.00. An introduction to the techniques of woodcut, linocut, collagraph, and related media. Emphasis on fine art conceptual issues, creativity, matting and framing art, and professional practices. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 26600 - Silkscreen Printmaking
Credit Hours: 3.00. An introduction to the techniques of silkscreen printmaking on paper, including the uses of handmade and light-sensitive stencils. Emphasis on fine art conceptual issues, creativity, matting, and framing art, and professional practices. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 26700 - Digital Media I: Photography and Digital Imaging
Credit Hours: 3.00. An introductory course in the creative generation and digital enhancement of photo-related imagery. Emphasis is on the development of technical and critical thinking skills, as well as fostering an awareness of pertinent theoretical issues. Typically offered Summer Fall Spring.
AD 27000 - Constructed Textiles
Credit Hours: 3.00. A beginning class in non-loom constructed textile techniques such as macramé and card-weaving. Emphasis on three-dimensional design in fiber using historical textile structures as the basis for contemporary interpretations. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 27100 - Dyed Textiles
Credit Hours: 3.00. Beginning course in non-screen fabric dyeing techniques such as tie-dye and batik. Survey of historical surface design for contemporary interpretations in both two and three dimensions. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 27500 - Beginning Sculpture
Credit Hours: 3.00. An introductory course in sculpture, exploring basic concepts, techniques, and materials. Problems in class will emphasize individual student's aesthetic understanding of techniques and inventive use of materials. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 28500 - Interior Components And Materials
Credit Hours: 3.00. Study of surface materials and subsystems and their application to architectural interior spaces. Emphasis on specification guidelines, including product performance, building codes, fire, safety, and health regulations. Typically offered Spring.

AD 29000 - Special Topics In Art And Design
Credit Hours: 1.00 to 3.00. Topics will vary. Permission of department required. Typically offered Spring Fall.

AD 30000 – Life Drawing II
Credit Hours: 3.00. Emphasis is given to organizing the figure in pictorial space. Typically offered Fall, Spring.

AD 30200 - Theory And Practice Of Elementary School Art
Credit Hours: 3.00. Theory and practice of art education for elementary school from early childhood through middle childhood. Restricted to art education majors. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 30300 - Art in Middle/Junior High Schools
Credit Hours: 3.00. Theory and practice of art education for early adolescent students in the middle/junior high school. Typically offered Spring Fall.

AD 30400 - Video Art
Credit Hours: 3.00. Introduction to digital video as a creative medium for artistic expression. Students will record, digitize, edit and distribute digital video content and author a digital portfolio of their work in the form of an interactive DVD. Permission of department required. Typically offered Fall, Spring.

AD 30500 - Industrial Design I
Credit Hours: 3.00. Introduction to design principles in processes employing basic problem-solving techniques. Emphasis will be placed on man's interaction with form, thought processes, procedures, craftsmanship, and use of materials. Acceptance into professional industrial design concentration by successful performance in the mandatory portfolio review. Prerequisites: Passing mandatory portfolio review. Typically offered Fall.

AD 30600 - Industrial Design II
Credit Hours: 3.00. An analysis of design through organic and aesthetic principles, natural solutions, and man-made systems. Skills and techniques for communication of creative design solutions. Rapid visualization, rendering, model making, and working models will be stressed. Typically offered Spring.
AD 31100 - Greek Art
Credit Hours: 3.00. A chronological survey of Greek art and architecture beginning with the Aegean civilization of the second millennium B.C. and ending with Hellenistic Greek art of the first century B.C. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 31500 - Design Methodology
Credit Hours: 3.00. This course will cover the fundamental concepts of design methodology. Studies in various problem-solving and research methods as they apply to the designer and society. Typically offered Fall.

AD 31600 - Seminar on Ideas in Industrial Design I: Design and Society
Credit Hours: 3.00. A study of design and the designer and the factors in society that affect his or her work. Typically offered Spring.

AD 31800 - Fundamentals of Interactive Multimedia Design
Credit Hours: 3.00. Fundamental issues of interactive multimedia design: Animation, interface design, and experience design from a visual communications perspective. Typically offered Fall.

AD 31900 - Web Design for Visual Communications
Credit Hours: 3.00. Introduction to web-based design from a visual communications application. Typically offered Spring.

AD 32000 - Interior Lighting Design
Credit Hours: 3.00. Study of principles of illumination, design criteria, specifications, and systems applied to architectural interiors in public and private spaces. Must pass mandatory portfolio review. Prerequisites: Passing mandatory portfolio review. Typically offered Fall

AD 32200 - Computer Modeling and Animation
Credit Hours: 3.00. A fine arts approach to three-dimensional computer graphics. Introduction to three-dimensional computer graphics concepts and their application to still and animated images. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 32400 - Textiles for Interiors
Credit Hours: 2.00. An introduction to textile fibers and fabrics used in interior environments with emphasis on design, product performance, and selection criteria. Field trips will be required. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 32600 - Physical Computing
Credit Hours: 3.00. Introduction to electronics and computer vision for artists. Students learn to create expressive audiovisual systems that can respond to events in the physical world (movement, light/temperature change, sound, touch, etc.) through custom interfaces. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 32700 - Art History Methodology
Credit Hours: 3.00. Offered in 2002-2003 and alternate years. A comprehensive introduction to the study of the history of art, associated areas of investigation, and the writing of research papers in the field. Practical experience for the serious student of art history. Typically offered Fall Spring.
AD 33000 - Interior Design III
Credit Hours: 3.00. Study of advanced space-planning criteria and selection of furnishings, equipment, materials, and finishes. Design considerations for special populations (e.g., disabled, aged, low-income) will be explored. Must pass mandatory portfolio review. Prerequisites: Passing mandatory portfolio review. Typically offered Fall.

AD 33100 - Digital Video Production And Aesthetics
Credit Hours: 3.00. Introduction to video as an art medium. Approaches include documentary, narrative, experimental, performance, installation, and web-based work. Students gain proficiency in technical and conceptual aspects of the medium through shooting exercises, production workshops, digital editing, and group critiques. Prerequisites: Acceptance into Photography and Related Media program by successful performance in the mandatory portfolio review. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 33200 - Visual Communications Design I
Credit Hours: 3.00. A course designed to introduce the student to projects that will develop an understanding of basic problem-solving techniques in the areas of publication and promotional graphics. Acceptance into professional VCD sequence via mandatory portfolio review. Typically offered Fall.

AD 33300 - Photo Silk Screen
Credit Hours: 3.00. Advanced study of the techniques of photo silkscreen and light-sensitive stencils. Emphasis on fine art conceptual issues, creativity, matting and framing art, and professional practices. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 33400 - New Media Culture
Credit Hours: 3.00. This lecture course provides a historical overview of the development of new media art. In their research, project papers, and practical assignments, students explore issues of media criticism, technology's impact on culture and society and visions of media utopias. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 33500 - Audio-Visual Sculpture
Credit Hours: 3.00. This course investigates new relationships between video, sound and sculpture. Students explore the emerging possibilities in video sculpture through digital video and sound production, computer-aided manufacturing, inexpensive digital playback devices and the creative use of database-driven video. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 33700 – Commercial and Professional Practice in Photography
Credit Hours: 3.00. This course introduces students to the skills necessary to attain entry-level employment in the photographic field and familiarizes student with the vocabulary, procedures, and working realities specific to occupations in the field of photography in the areas of photo-journalism, magazine illustration, advertising/web design, and fine arts. Permission of department required. Typically offered Fall.

AD 34200 - Ceramics II
Credit Hours: 3.00. A continuation of A&D 242; according to student needs in creating ceramic forms, a variety of in-depth experiences: experimental kiln building and firing techniques, methods of ceramic construction, surface treatment, and clay and glaze formulation. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 34400 – Latin American Art in the 20th Century
Credit Hours: 3.00. This course offers a critical yet comprehensive overview of modern and contemporary art from Latin America. AD 40300 - Portfolio Process and Presentation
Credit Hours: 3.00. The process of organizing, editing, and packaging work in a cohesive system will be illustrated in lecture, individualized studio projects, and on-site portfolio reviews. The course will focus on presentation as well as the building of the portfolio and students will participate in discussions, critiques, resume preparation, and mock interviews. Copyright issues and ownership of work will also be discussed. Typically offered Summer Fall Spring.

AD 40400 – Moldmaking and/or Wheel-Throwing Production Techniques in Ceramics
Credit Hours: 3.00-6.00. This course will teach mold-making or wheel-throwing (depending on the individual student’s interest) with a view to creating ceramic objects suitable for commercial mass-production. Both tableware and/or sculptural objects will be explored. For the wheel-throwing option the students must have at least one year of high school throwing or AD 24200 with a grade of at least “B” or permission of instructor. For the mold-making and casting option only, students must be an Art and Design student or have permission of instructor. Typically offered Fall, Spring.

AD 40500 - Industrial Design III
Credit Hours: 3.00. Design projects emphasizing sophisticated problem-solving methods. Design projects will stress diversity of industrial design and will trace the development of products from initial concept, research, and development through production. Typically offered Fall.

AD 40600 - Industrial Design IV
Credit Hours: 3.00. Design of products in their relation to economic, physiological, psychological, and behavioral patterns of the consumer. Emphasis upon total thought processes to allow environmental considerations as well as technological realities. Typically offered Spring.

AD 41500 - Professional Techniques
Credit Hours: 3.00. Research development for product design, with emphasis on socioeconomic concerns and documentation techniques. Portfolio refinement, including verbal, written, and other visual documentation and presentation skills in various media, such as drawing. Photography and computer-generated graphics will be stressed. Typically offered Fall.
AD 41600 - Seminar on Ideas in Industrial Design II: Design and Creative Problem Solving Methods
Credit Hours: 3.00. A study of creative problem solving methods as used by the designer in his or her work. Typically offered Fall.

AD 41700 - Variable Topics in Electronic and Time-Based Art
Credit Hours: 3.00. Examination of thematic or specialized topics reflecting the most recent developments and contemporary artistic practices in Electronic and Time-Based Art. Permission of department required. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 42100 - Advanced Studies in Photography And Related Media I
Credit Hours: 3.00. The first of two advanced level courses in photography/related media focusing on production of a formally and conceptually coherent body of work. Course emphasizes development of studio and critical thinking skills, and initiates investigation of the creative process. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 42200 - Advanced Studies In Photography And Related Media II
Credit Hours: 3.00. An advanced level course in photography and related media focusing on production of a formally and conceptually coherent body of work, articulated within an appropriate, informed critical context. Culminates in curation of formal exhibition. Typically offered Fall.

AD 42600 - Robotic Art
Credit Hours: 3.00. The Robotic Art Studio is an experimental and interdisciplinary class that explores the aesthetics, technologies, ideologies and cultural impact of robotics. Students build robots that beep, blink, bounce and walk. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 42700 - Interactive Light
Credit Hours: 3.00. Exploring light experimentally and across different disciplines, students in this class will work on a variety of different projects, such as: light sculpture, light performance, light environments. The course will also introduce strategies on how to manipulate and control light interactively. Typically offered Fall Spring.

AD 43000 - Interior Design V
Credit Hours: 3.00. Design of multi-use complex environments, emphasizing program and problem solving, facility planning, building systems, and materials technology. Application of alternative presentation technologies will be explored. Typically offered Fall.

AD 43100 - Visual Communications Design III
Credit Hours: 3.00. The advanced study of communication concepts of poster and poster application in current media. Typically offered Fall.
