Boilers Go to D.C. Financial Need Award

This scholarship is for students who have been accepted into the Boilers Go to D.C. course.

Deadline: March 1, 2023
Amount: Award amounts will vary by individual student need

Criteria for Eligibility: Students must have met all eligibility requirements for the Boilers Go to D.C. course and have been accepted into the course by the course instructors. Awards are based on the individual student’s financial need.

To Apply:
Submit a letter of financial need to Andrea Langrish at langrish@purdue.edu.

- Include your name, major and minor, and year in school
- Tell us about yourself and why you applied for the Boilers Go to D.C. program.
- Explain how you are currently paying for college, including what you personally are doing to contribute financially (scholarships, working student jobs, loans, etc...)
- Describe any financial challenges/difficulties you and/or your family are facing
- Explain how you would benefit from the scholarship—including your academic and career goals

Letters will be reviewed to verify student eligibility and to determine the award amount.

Awards are not guaranteed.

For questions, contact Andrea Langrish, Managing Director, Center for C-SPAN Scholarship & Engagement: langrish@purdue.edu
This scholarship is for Black students who have been accepted into the Boilers Go to D.C. course.

Deadline: March 1, 2023
Amount: Award amounts will vary by individual student need

Criteria for Eligibility: This scholarship is for Black students who have been accepted into the Boilers Go to D.C. course. Students must have met all eligibility requirements for the Boilers Go to D.C. course and have been accepted into the course by the course instructors. Awards are based on the individual student’s financial need.

To Apply:
Submit a letter of financial need to Andrea Langrish at lanrish@purdue.edu.

- Include your name, major and minor, and year in school
- Tell us about yourself and why you applied for the Boilers Go to D.C. program.
- Explain how you are currently paying for college, including what you personally are doing to contribute financially (scholarships, working student jobs, loans, etc...)
- Describe any financial challenges/difficulties you and/or your family are facing
- Explain how you would benefit from the scholarship—including your academic and career goals

Letters will be reviewed to verify student eligibility and to determine the award amount. Awards are not guaranteed.

For questions, contact Andrea Langrish, Managing Director, Center for C-SPAN Scholarship & Engagement: lanrish@purdue.edu