Research on Diversity & Inclusion Lecture Series

"Fractured Rainbow: Race and Public Opinion in the Early 21st Century"

Dr. Michael Dawson
John D. Rockefeller Distinguished Service Professor in Political Science
University of Chicago

Wednesday March 9, 2011
4:00 pm
Anniversary Drawing Room
Purdue Memorial Union

Michael Dawson was the founding director of the University of Chicago's Center for the Study of Race, Politics and Culture. His research interests include the development of quantitative models of African American political behavior and public opinion, the political effects of urban poverty, and African American political ideology. He is the author of Black Visions: The Roots of Contemporary African American Political Ideologies and Behind the Mule: Race and Class in African-American Politics.

Supported by the Office of the President and the Office of the Provost

Co-Sponsors:
Office of the Vice Provost for Diversity and Inclusion, Diversity Resource Office, Global Policy Research Institute, College of Agriculture, College of Education, College of Engineering, College of Health and Human Sciences, Krannert School of Management, College of Pharmacy, College of Science, College of Technology, College of Veterinary Medicine, The Graduate School and Purdue Libraries.

Purdue University is a equal access/equal opportunity university.