College of Liberal Arts Study Abroad and International Programs Internships

CLA Study Abroad and International Programs offer various on-campus internships in positions such as Event Planning, Communications, Graphic Design, Video Design, and Web Design. These internships allow students to gain valuable experience, build a portfolio, and gain course credit while representing Study Abroad and International Programs. As an intern, you will also serve as an ambassador for SAIP at campus events such as Study Abroad fairs, Global Seminar series presentations, End of Semester Farewell receptions, and more.

Duties
Each internship position has unique responsibilities to help promote international programs and strengthen the student’s skill set. All interns will share responsibility of promoting and representing CLA Study Abroad at certain campus events.

Requirements
- Be a current CLA student (all majors welcome)
- Must complete the internship as course credit (GS 490, 1-3 credits)
- Course can be taken for grade or as P/NP
- Prior Study Abroad participation is preferred but not required
- Graphic Design interns must have previous design experience & proficiency with Photoshop or InDesign
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Attention to detail and ability to follow through
- Ability to meet deadlines
- Enthusiasm for the College of Liberal Arts and Study Abroad programs

How to Apply
Submit your resume, application, and availability to Elizabeth Díaz, International Programs and Study Abroad Coordinator, at eadiaz@purdue.edu and Amanda Goodwin, Program Assistant, at angoodwin@purdue.edu. Applicants interested in the Graphic Design internship should also include a sample of their design work. Qualified applicants will then be contacted by phone or email to schedule a brief interview.
