The Purdue Policy Research Institute (PPRI) welcomes applications for two new internships. Applicants must be pursuing a bachelor’s degree in Communication during the semester of the internship. First priority is given to juniors and seniors. Each paid internship earns $10 per hour for up to 10 hours per week during the Fall 2020 semester.

What You Will Do

- Help to develop and maintain a policy blog along with fellow interns, led by a team lead
- Draft news releases, talking points, and pitches for media
- Report on PPRI events
- Offer creative input to projects, including but not limited to social media planning, brand messaging, and video production
- Build target lists of media and government influencers
- Investigate, interview, and write articles for annual magazine, Wicked
- Write and monitor social media content
- Help analyze social and PR media data
- Assist in updating website
- Policy research and reporting on various topics as needed

Applications due April 17, 2020

To apply, please send a cover letter and resume to Krista Kelley, Operations Manager, at kokelley@purdue.edu.

For more information please contact Krista Kelley or PPRI Director, Dr. Stacey Connaughton, at sconnaug@purdue.edu.

Purdue Policy Research Institute
Mann Hall, Suite 166
203 S. Martin Jischke Dr.
West Lafayette, IN 47907

purdue.edu/dp/ppri